MCDONALD'S SLATES 'McHAPPY DAY'
FOR SPECIAL OLYMPICS

MISSOULA--

McDonald's will have a "McHappy Day" Sunday, April 27, at its Missoula restaurant at 3310 Brooks.

On that day McDonald's will contribute 25 cents to the Montana Special Olympics for every Big Mac sold. In addition, the national McDonald's corporation will donate a percentage of the cost of the Big Macs sold in Missoula on that day to the Montana Special Olympics.

The Special Olympics will be held in Missoula May 14-16. In their 11th year in Montana, the games will attract more than 1,000 physically handicapped participants from throughout the state.

The event is sponsored by the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation, the Montana Jaycees, the University of Montana and several individual organizations in the state.
